

Reunion August 17, 1985
Committee: Class of 1953

The Seventh I.C. High School Reunion was held at the American Legion Hall in Gilbertville on August 11, 1985. It was planned by most of the nine members of the Class of 1953

A social hour started the event at 6:00 p.m. followed with a roast beef dinner and a dance. Floyd Warren Band played songs from the 50's for the dance. Prizes were given away all evening. Everyone enjoyed the music.

The room was decorated in blue and white. Each class was seated during the banquet with their graduating class. Flower arrangements decorated each table. Father Ralph Semington was a guest.

After the banquet, Jerry Holbach and Marcella Dunnwald read out-of-town alumni letters and had a short meeting. Each alumnus introduced their spouse or friend.

There were 92 present at the class reunion. Everyone enjoyed seeing each other remembering old times at I.C. The next class reunion will be hosted by the Class of 1954
